

Rebecca,

Thank you so much for coming in and speaking to my classes. I thought you did a wonderful job and gave the students a realistic view of what owning your own business is like. It was a great start to our new chapter and the students can relate easier to the material. I really appreciate that you were willing to take the time out of your day to come in and speak to my students. I would recommend your business anytime to people who are moving!

Brenda Rowlan
Business Teacher
Woodbridge HS