

Hi Rebecca,

I just wanted to thank you again for taking the time to come and speak to my classes. You always have a lot to offer the students and give them insight into what owning a business is like. I think its necessary for them to hear the information from a real business owner and you always do a great job. I appreciate it & so do they!

Thank you,
Brenda