

Bargain Boxes work used as example of excellence at PODS franchise conference in Tampa Florida.

Tampa, Florida, February 24, 2006: In front of almost 200 PODS franchisees, picture after picture of load work from Bargain Boxes was shown on a giant screen as an example of how pods should be loaded. "We were proud to be picked out of hundreds of movers across the country as the premier example of what a load should look like" said Rebecca Barnes, president of Bargain Boxes in Manassas Virginia. "We pride ourselves on quality work at fair prices, and to be displayed as an example of excellence is both exciting and satisfying."

Bargain Boxes web site bargainboxes.com is a one stop moving shop where customers can purchase moving supplies, delivered right to their door. They can get a moving quote online or request an in home estimate when their supplies are delivered. Bargain Boxes can provide moving and storage solutions, including PODS and self storage with various partnerships they have built.

"The most important thing for our clients to know is they have options." says Rebecca. "Moving is not a one size fits all situation, we work within our clients budget and needs." You can reach Rebecca at www.bargainboxes.com or by calling 703-580-6649
